THREE LITTLE PIGS

An opera for elementary school students, ages 3 through 5th grade

Pensacola Opera proudly presents The Three Little Pigs, the opera, as its spring educational touring production! Designed specifically for elementary school children, Three Little Pigs tells the story of the children's literary classic. The opera is based on scenes from four operas by classical composer Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. This program exposes children to the magic of live opera combined with a positive message on reading and attending school regularly. Considering this, The Three Little Pigs is an excellent opportunity for students, educators and community groups alike!

Three Little Pigs runs approx. 45 minutes and can include an additional 10-15 minute Q&A session with the cast. Performers in Pensacola Opera's Three Little Pigs are young, professional opera singers who work all over the country. A cast of four, a pianist and a stage manager will arrive one hour before the performance to set up and handle all performance logistics. A performance space of at least 16 ft. wide, 12 ft. deep and 8 ft. high, like a stage in a cafetorium, will best accommodate the set, cast and additional props. One electrical outlet is essential for the piano and amp. Lastly, the cast will need brief access to a private room for use as a dressing room and access to a bathroom to best prepare for the show.

Reserve your performance today! Three Little Pigs will tour January 25 through April 4, 2012. Cost is $500 for one show and $250 for each additional show scheduled within the same day and in the same venue. Financial assistance is available to schools and certain community groups, based on availability.
